Curtin on the eve of his resignation.

Governor Curtin on the eve of his resignation went in his capacity as Governor to a formal leave of the Legislature and during the conversation which followed in the words: "I wish, sir, you a safe return express my thanks to the American people for the great kindness they showed my son, the Grand Duke Alexis, it will be remembered that General Grant had refused to receive him, and the latter had left Governor Curtin noticed the slight failure to send thanks to the President as well as the people He remarked that it was a slip of the memory and bade farewell in almost the words "I shall be happy to convey your Majesty's thanks to the President and people I thank you, sir," the Empress retorted, "not only to the people." Gov Curtin then complained of the slight that had been publicly put upon the Government in not having invited by Gortschakoff to a conference on the subject Three days later from the archives of the Russian Foreign Office, which authorized him to join with England and France in breaking the blockade and give the Confederates the benefits of the Declaration of Paris. Curtin replied that England had already promised to recognize the Confederacy The Russian Minister at London had contained the Emperor's reply He flatly declined the alliance proposed by Curtin in the war Russia was then engaged in with Turkey and England and France were within a few days of the end of orders given to the Russian fleet to remain brought his fleet into New York harbor at once, with his whole force at the disposal of the Cabinet at Washington, and abundant and speedy reinforcements Curtin stared dumbfounded, and proofs of Russia's steadfast Union cause, Gortschakoff Perhaps you can appreciate the Emperor and Empress sent the people who have honored Alexis and not to the Government has insulted him We saved and now your President insults It is too much Curtin with him and the interview

OREGON LEGISLATURE.

EIGHTH BIENNIAL SESSION

Phonographically reported for the Oregonian

Senate--Morning Session

SALEM Sept 24 1874

The Senate met at the usual hour President Cochran in the chair Absent Mr Cornelius

Prayer by Rev A Atkinson Jones of the Baptist Church Salem

The Journal was read and approved

Mr GOODMAN presented a petition from the Common Council and citizens of the town of Scio asking for an amendment to the charter of that town which on motion of Mr WEBSTER was referred to the special committee to be composed of the members from Linn county

Mr VAN CLEAVE in accordance with notice given on yesterday introduced a resolution to amend the 18th rule of the standing rules of the Senate, so that all bills should be ordered printed without special action by the Senate The resolution was lost Yeas 10 nays 10

Mr HANNA introduced S J R No 9

Resolved by the Senate the House concurring That the Committee on Ways and Means of the Senate and the Committee on Ways and Means of the House be authorized to meet as a joint committee for the purpose of taking into consideration that portion of the Governor's message relating to the financial condition of the country

Mr WEBSTER offered an amendment That said committee be instructed to take into consideration the fees of Clerks and Sheriffs, and report by bill upon the same.

The amendment was carried and the resolution as amended was adopted

On motion the usual number of copies of S B No 28 were ordered printed

BILLS INTRODUCED AND READ FIRST TIME.

Mr WATSON S B No 39 a bill to amend the code of civil procedure providing for the execution of sheriffs deeds after the expiration of the term of office of the Sheriff by whom the deeds should have been signed Also S B No 40 a bill to enable married women to control and dispose of their property

Mr OWENS gave notice of a bill for the division of Douglas county

SECOND READING OF BILLS.

S B No 15 a bill to abolish the system of grand juries was read a second time

Mr WATSON moved that the further consideration of the bill be indefinitely postponed

Mr BRISTOW—I hope this motion will not prevail I think this bill should pass. I believe that the system of grand juries of Oregon should be abolished that it is a useless and cumbersome institution that one-third at least of all the expense of running Lane county is in consequence of the grand jury system, and that nine tenths of that one-third of the expense of the county is caused by malice, for which grand juries afford convenient cover. For no reason why justices of the peace cannot perform all the duties of grand juries with equal effectiveness in punishing crime and with infinitely less expense

Mr WATSON—My objection to this bill is that it will operate as a general jail delivery without trial, and act as a general pardon of all crimes committed within the limits of the State It would abolish the grand jury system without substituting anything in its place. It would operate simply as a general jail delivery and is aimed the same as all these reforms of the criminal system by persons who do not understand the nature of the reforms intended to be made

Mr DOLPH—I think this measure proposed by the Senator from Lane is an admirable step in the reform of the laws proposed to be made by some gentleman here. If he would add just one amendment to his bill which is to repeal all the criminal statutes, well and good, and allow each law to rule—that, it seems to me, would be the very acme of these reforms.

Mr BRISTOW was not surprised that all the lawyers should oppose the repeal of the grand jury system, as with them it was literally a question of jail delivery for the benefit of gentlemen who are afraid of the abolition of all law and the supremacy of Judge Lynch that I understand there is a bill being prepared providing for the examination of crimes and detention of criminals in cases this bill should pass This is all the explanation I have to make

Mr MYERS moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Judiciary with instructions to prepare a bill providing a substitute for the grand jury system

Mr WATSON objected as a member of that Committee, to having put upon their shoulders the labor of preparing a substitute for a law which had required ages and the labor of the greatest legal minds to perfect

Mr WEBSTER moved to amend by referring to the Committee on Engrossed Bills which motion the Chair ruled out of order, and Mr Webster appealed from the decision of the Chair

The Senate refused to sustain the Chair

Mr WEBSTER afterward by consent withdrew the motion to amend and the motion to refer to the Judiciary Committee was also withdrawn The question recurring on the original motion to indefinitely postpone the motion was carried and the bill was indefinitely postponed

On motion Senate adjourned

Afternoon Session.

The Senate resumed at the usual hour

By unanimous consent Mr CLARK introduced S B No 41 a bill appropriating $50 000 for the payment of mileage and per diem of members of the Legislative Assembly and authorizing the Treasurer to borrow for that purpose from the soldiers bounty fund all money in that fund except sufficient to pay the interest of outstanding bonds

On motion of Mr WATSON the rules were suspended and the bill was read a second time by title

Mr DOLPH moved that the rules be again suspended and the bill read a third time now and put upon its passage, which motion prevailed and

The question being Shall the bill pass the vote stood Yeas 8 nays, 3 Cornelius absent So the bill passed

S B No 16 a bill to repeal the Game Law was read a second time and, on motion of Mr HIRSCH was laid on the table

S B No 17 introduced by Mr BRISTOW a bill to repeal the Act creating a State Board of Equalization was read a second time

Mr BRISTOW moved that the bill be ordered engrossed and read a third time to-morrow

Mr DOLPH moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

Mr TOWNSEND moved to amend by striking out "Ways and Means," and inserting Judiciary Committee

Mr BRISTOW hoped the motion would not prevail He thought the Board of Equalization a humbug and that it should be repealed He thought that no board of men sitting in Salem could be qualified to judge of the valuation of property in distant portions of the state.

Mr DOLPH thought that while the present law was defective some law in that regard should exist, and he hoped the bill would be referred

Mr TOWNSEND favored the amendment to the Judiciary Committee as the law had been declared unconstitutional, and thought that the proper Committee to which to the bill should be referred

Mr WATSON did not think there were any legal questions to be determined and hoped the motion would not prevail as there seemed a disposition to make the Judiciary Committee a kind of pack horse for the Senate He thought the Committee on Ways and Means the proper one

Mr VAN CLEAVE was in favor of committing but not to the Judiciary Committee

Mr BAINES was opposed to committing at all He thought the work of the Board a failure, and was in favor of repealing the law

The motion to refer to the Judiciary Committee was lost.

The question recurring on the motion to refer to the committee on Ways and Means Mr HIRSCH spoke in favor of the motion and

Mr OFFIELD opposed The latter was ready to vote on the passage of the bill now and hoped it would pass as he thought it was unjust to any State and to pass on the valuation of property in parts of the country they had not seen

The motion to refer was lost.

Mr HIRSCH moved that the bill be laid on the table

The motion was lost

The question recurring on the original motion that the bill be ordered engrossed and read a third time to-morrow

Mr HIRSCH moved that to-morrow and the 15th of October next be inserted He said he thought this too important a question to be so hastily considered He said that the Committee on Ways and Means had been making some figures and had found that in order to meet the expenses of the state for the next two years would require a revenue of about $750 000 He thought there should be some means devised to render the burden of taxation equal

Mr WATSON thought the motion was equivalent to indefinite postponement and could not see the relevancy of Mr Hirsch's remarks

Mr BEALY was opposed to the Equalization Board as it now stands and thought if we have a Board of that kind it should be composed of three persons from each county

Mr OFFIELD could not see how it is Board were going to assist in railing revenues

The motion to refer to October 15th was lost

The question recurring on the original motion of Mr Bristow, the motion was lost

On motion of Mr TOWNSEND the rules were suspended and the bill was read a third time

The question being Shall the bill pass the vote stood Yeas 20 nays 4—Hirsch Nolan Van Cleave and Webster Cornelius absent.

So the bill passed

S B No 18 a bill providing for the payment of claims arising out of the Modoc war was read second time and was referred to the Committee on Military Affairs

S B No 20 a bill to repeal the act creating the office of State Geologist was read a second time

Mr VAN CLEAVE moved to refer the bill to the Committee on Mining The motion was lost

A motion of Mr RICHARDSON to indefinitely postpone the bill was lost Yeas 5 nays 24

On motion the bill was ordered engrossed and read a third time to-morrow

S B No 21 to repeal An Act creating the office of Register of State Lands for LaGrande District, was read a second time and on motion of Mr WEBSTER, was referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

S B No 22 a bill providing for rates be applied on public roads was read a second time

Mr OWENS moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Roads and Highways which motion prevailed

S B No 23 offering a bounty on the calps of wild animals was read a second time and after some discussion referred to the Committee of the Whole

S B No 24 a bill to disorganize the county of Tillamook was indefinitely postponed

S B No 25 a bill fixing the times for holding County Courts in Union county and legalizing the acts of said Courts since 1872 was read a second time ordered engrossed and read a third time to-morrow

S B No 26 a bill amending the law relating to Assessors and requiring them to assess property at its cash value and to return a description of all real property assessed was read a second time and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

S B No 27 a bill to repeal the act empowering Assessors to receive bank deposits was read a second time and ordered read a third time to-morrow

S B No 28 a bill abolishing the salary of Clerk of the Supreme Court was read a second time and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary

Mr REED moved that a special committee of three be appointed The Chair appointed Messrs Reed of Marion Lane and Bradshaw as such Committee

BILLS

S B No 2 to repeal an act providing for Assistant Treasurer of State, was taken up The question being on referring the bill to Joint Committee on Retrenchment and Reform

Mr FIDLER thought the bill should be so referred This was a well regulated consideration That the salary of the Assistant Treasurer was too large he fully believed but he was equally sure that $800 as compensation for the Treasurer was too small and he was in favor of referring it so that the committee might digest a bill which would provide a just compensation

Mr GEARIN thought there could be no question but this bill ought to pass now He knew that $800 was not sufficient compensation but if it was not sufficient, let us give him something reasonable.

Mr BRADSHAW opposed the reference

Mr FLORENCE thought we should be governed by the Constitution He believed there was no occasion for additional compensation He should oppose the reference

Mr REED thought the Legislature might provide additional compensation if they thought necessary but the proposition in favor of the repeal of this law had been so universal that there is no occasion for delay

Mr GALLOWAY favored the reference and Messrs Steen and Chambers opposed it.

The question being put the House refused to refer the bill

Mr MAYS renewed his motion to suspend the rules and put the bill on its passage now Carried

On the question being Shall the bill pass the vote stood yeas 38 nays, 5 Stannard of Linn voting no Simpson absent on leave

The meanest man in Oregon is told of in the Statesman He lives in Gopher valley Yamhill county, and is a well to do citizen A few days ago his son was taken violently ill and a physician informed him the boy could live but a short time. Horrid as the idea may seem the father expressed a desire to negotiate for the coffin lumber before the sick boy breathed his last and only desisted at the earnest solicitation of his neighbors Nor was this all When it became necessary to bury the dead the father sternly refused to furnish clean clothes for the corpse, and a shroud was actually provided for the departed son and paid for by sympathizing friends and neighbors

From a gentleman just returned from a visit to Yamhill county, the Statesman learns the particulars of an extensive robbery that occurred at McMinnville on Monday evening last The general merchandise store belonging to Bancassar & Delschneider was broken into by a burglar or burglars, who effected an entrance through the back door and ransacked the store completely, selecting several bolts of fine cloths and various articles of jewelry valued at perhaps $300 which they escaped with avoiding detection It is supposed the deed was committed by Indians several parties being strongly suspected Officers have been put on the track and it is very probable the guilty parties will be caught and made to suffer the severest penalty of the law

FROM THE CAPITAL

SALEM Sept 24 1874

The House to day passed by a vote only wanting one of being unanimous the bill passed in the Senate to repeal the law under which the State Treasurer has been receiving the large extra compensation There was a disposition manifested on the part of several members of the Democratic persuasion to oppose the measure, and an attempt was made to get it into the hands of a committee. In the debate on the motion to refer it was pretty broadly insinuated by the opponents of the reference that the motion was made merely as a means of choking the bill But the reference failed and the bill was put through under suspension of the rules. There seemed, however, a very general conviction that the salary of the office $800, is entirely too small for the services It would not be surprising if an effort were made to pass a law giving the Treasurer a reasonable compensation

It seems not likely that the bill repealing the law reimbursing the Supreme Judges for traveling expenses will pass It ought not to pass The rules of working the Judges as our Judicial system works them, and having them travel from place to place at their own expense, and then paying them only $2,000, strikes the mind at once as unjust The Judges are paid less in proportion to the services they render than any other class of officers, and yet their office is one which in its very nature ought to command the highest wages in proportion to services

It is expected that there will be a raid on the Executive office, where it is claimed there is room for retrenchment, and an assault upon the Secretary of State is contemplated

The State Geologist and the Superintendent of Public Instruction are likewise in danger A strong effort will be made to abolish the office of Geologist, and I should not be in the least surprised if it succeeded Some members also desire to do away with the State Superintendent of Public Instruction but the measure finds less favor than that relating to the Geologist

Mr Chambers' bill to transfer the election of Clerk of the Supreme Court from the Legislature to the Judges of the Court, is generally regarded favorably It should pass by all means. The Judges are of all persons best qualified to select a proper person to keep the records of the Court and report its decisions The provision of the bill to keep away the salary of the Clerk, and leaving him fees alone, as is inserted under the apprehension that the salary of $800 added to the fees, makes the office worth about $3,500, which is probably about twice as large an amount as the actual receipts Mr Chambers says that if on investigation it is found that the fees and salary together are only from $1,500 to $2,000, he will not insist on having the salary taken off, as this sum is not too much for the duties required a large part of which have no fees provided

RAILWAY MANIAS

The railway pot is beginning to boil vigorously The Eastern members, and others especially engaged in promoting the Portland and Salt Lake route, had a meeting last night but did not come to any very definite understanding The new Company organized over Col Chapman's Company is to have given rise to considerable feeling in some quarters I am informed, and have reason to believe, the new organization is misunderstood by those who think it is hostile to the Colonel's enterprise but it is going to be difficult to get the matter understood in that way I am afraid the result will be damaging to the whole cause

The Winnemucca scheme finds little opposition of an open character It contracts with none of the rest, is disposed to be friendly to all

A STATE SENATOR DABBLING IN GRAIN.

WASHINGTON Co, Sept 23 1874

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

The farmers of Washington county have been not a little surprised to see that one of the Solons from Salem, somewhat noted for his intellectual and corporeal heaviness, instead of attending to his duties as a legislator, is spending his time for which he will in all probability claim $3 per day in acting as a volunteer agent for the Grangers We infer the agency from the familiarity with the doings of the State Grange at its late session, that is claimed by this dabbler from his post

We think, however, that the people of this county who have grain to sell, will teach this Legislative speculator that his declaration, that the Grangers have put down the price of grain, will impose upon few persons, as but few persons place much confidence in any statement he may make with regard to any matter that directly or indirectly interferes with the financial or political schemes of himself or his master

As the individual in question claims to be a favorite at Salem, we think he would do well to stay there and attend to his duties, rather than spend the time to which his constituents are entitled in unsuppressed tirades intended to depreciate the value of the products of their hard labor FARMER

MR DOLPH WAGGLES, AND RETRENCHMENT

The Daily Oregonian.

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 25, 1874.

A CASE OF EXTORTION.

The farmers of Washington county, more particularly those near Forest Grove and Hillsboro, have for some time past complained bitterly of the treatment they have received at the hands of the Oregon Central Railroad Company. They have asserted that Mr. Holladay has refused them just and reasonable facilities for shipping their farm products along the line of the road, and has compelled them to use other means to reach Portland. The following excerpt from the Forest Grove Independent of yesterday shows the suicidal policy adopted by the O. C. R. R. Co. for this season:

Last Saturday the order was given by Superintendent Bryant to Geo. Shaw, agent at Cornelius, to allow no more wheat shipped from Cornelius except through Col. T. R. Cornelius' warehouse. Jerome Porter, who is in the wheat business, interviewed Bryant and Gaston, and they both said that it was their understanding that wheat could be shipped outside the warehouse. Nevertheless the order was made, and now no grain can be shipped from Cornelius without the Colonel takes his seven cents royalty out of it.

We see now very distinctly why it was that the Colonel got ten days' leave of absence from the Legislature—he learned that the farmers were shipping their wheat outside of his warehouse and he came down to put a stop to it. Thomas is a shrewd lad as well as a wicked.

And again:

We stated several months ago that Ben Holladay had stipulated with T. R. Cornelius that no depot should be built within a certain distance of Cornelius Station, and that in this distance no wheat could be shipped on the cars, but that it should all be made to pass through Colonel Tom's warehouse. Now, then, we point to the order of the Superintendent, issued last Saturday, to prove our assertion. It has come to a pretty pass when farmers cannot hire cars at the nearest points to ship their grain, but have to pass it through the Colonel's warehouse in order that he may take his toll out of it.

It is difficult to believe that the railroad company could adopt a policy so short-sighted and so injurious to their own interests, and the interests of the large farming community to which the road should be a benefit rather than a source of constant and needless annoyance. Yet the Independent states the facts with such positive assurance of their truth that we cannot doubt.

It would seem to be to the interest of the Railroad Company to encourage the shipment of grain at the least possible expense to the farmer, and to stop at every convenient point to take on freight. A just regard for the convenience of shippers would cause the farmer as little trouble and expense as possible, and thereby stimulate production at the lowest possible cost, and encourage immigration. Why force the farmer to cart his own grain to Portland, as scores of Washington county farmers did last season, and as they will surely do this year unless these odious restrictions are removed? Why run unloaded cars when the road may be made to return a reasonable revenue? It occurs to us that the Oregon Central Railroad Company can not well afford to continue this policy.

FIRING THE SOUTHERN HEART.

Since the beginning of recent troubles in the South, the Shreveport (La.) Times has gained an infamous notoriety by the publication of editorial writings like the annexed:

We have declared war against carpet-baggers and scalawags, and we are going to carry on that war, whether there be troops in Louisiana or not. Meetings and threats and the gathering of Kellogg's metropolitans and negro militia cannot put us down. If those are the means by which the Radicals propose to carry this election, they will be promptly responded to. The drum-beat upon the street pavements threatening harmony with the fierce throbbings in the hearts of outraged men, and there are eyes which kindle with a battle-fire at the crack of a rifle. The fighting strength of a population of three hundred and sixty thousand white people, inspired by a love of liberty and justice, aroused to anger by bitter wrongs, and goaded to desperation by ruin and dishonor, cannot be intimidated by a few regiments of Federal troops, nor whipped into submission by the armed police and cut-throats of a loathsome carpet-bag faction.

"Trumpets are sounding in the gloom."

To the credit of the Southern people be it said, there is in the whole tier of States but one or two papers besides the Times which utter or endorse such inflammatory sentiments as the above. We can think of but one, just now—the Caucasian, published in Lexington, Missouri, whose insane ravings were once quoted as the sentiment of the Southern people. Even these crazy mutterings of the Shreveport Times are scattered over all the Northern States where elections are now pending. They are published in party newspapers with startling heads in sombre black, sown broadcast in the form of campaign pamphlets and read from the platform. The result of all this is that the animosities of the war are aroused, the people in the North get distorted views of their brethren in the South and the bitter hostilities of the hustings are carried into Congress where they too often prevent that just legislation which it is the duty of Congress to give, and without which the South can never again be prosperous. That there are now as there always have been in the Southern States, violent, murderous fanatics, no one of all familiar with the facts may deny. But that they represent the thinking people of that section we cannot believe. In some parishes in Louisiana, for instance, the spirit of rebellion against the General Government is still active. But in New Orleans and the larger towns where riot means murder, pillage and the utter ruin of business, men are slow to take up arms against the Federal authority. The merchants and landowners, the men of brains and enterprise, do not want war.

Here is an illustration of the woful ignorance or criminal malice which lays the foundations of all the misunderstandings that lie at the bottom of many real and fancied grievances. In the Chicago Tribune we find a telegraphic dispatch stating that Hon. Charles Hays, member of Congress from Alabama, writes to the Hartford Courant, giving startling facts concerning the murder of white and black Republicans in Alabama. Mr. Hays introduces his narrative by by the following gloomy paragraph:

"I had fondly hoped that the reign of terror in the South was over, and that peace, good-will and prosperity might forthwith reign supreme. In this hope I am sadly disappointed, for candor compels me to say that to-day riots, murders, and assassinations of the true friends of the Government are more common than they have been at any hour since Lee surrendered to Grant, and unless the strong arm of the Federal power can avert the calamity, I can see nothing in the future save gloom and despair to loyal men of the South, ruin to the material interests of the country, and death to those of us who uphold the honor and integrity of the nation, and counsel submission to the laws of the United States."

On the other hand we find in the New-York Times of September 13th, a special dispatch from Montgomery, Ala., which says that "ex-United States District Attorney J. A. Minnis and ex-Congressman Buckley have written letters, and U. S. Deputy Marshal Randolph, Probate Judge Ely and City Clerk Hughes unite in a card denying the stories of lawlessness and terrorism which have been circulated in the North" to the prejudice of Alabama. The dispatch significantly concludes: "All these gentlemen are Republicans." Mr. Hays talks as if like the Plymouth pastor, he "inherits a tendency to sadness, the remains in him of positive hypochondria" in some of his ancestors. Put his letter and some of the incendiary utterances of the Shreveport Times together, and you have all the elements of a war majority. The Louisville Courier-Journal, looking at the matter from a purely partisan point of view, declares that the next House of Representatives is lost to the Democracy on account of the doings of the so-called White League. It might have said, just as truthfully, that Northern Democracy is in a measure responsible for both cause and effect. We have yet to see the first Democratic newspaper which has condemned the outrages upon the blacks in the South, or expressed a regret that the perpetrators have not been punished. They never fail to charge all the blame upon the "niggers" and the "carpet-baggers." And yet they pretend to be the best friends of the South. Their friendship is of the kind that deceived Southern Democracy into prolonging the rebellion. The real friends of Louisiana, South Carolina and all States similarly afflicted, are those who would allay the bitter strife between the races, counsel a patient submission to present evils until they can be abolished by legal remedies and discourage that intense sectional and partisan feeling which forever seeks to kindle passions which should be buried past all resurrection. There is plenty of evidence that the better classes of both races in the South are honestly striving to do their part. Let it then be understood henceforth that Louisiana has the same rights that Massachusetts has—that neither the Rebellion of 1860 nor the Hartford Convention of 1814 shall stand in the way of equal and exact justice to all.

BENJAMIN R. CURTIS.

It is with sincere sorrow that we announce the death of Benjamin R. Curtis, one of the most eminent jurists of the United States, a scholar of high culture and a man whose reputation for spotless integrity was known in every part of the land. He died at Newport, Rhode Island, on the 15th day of the present month.

Benjamin Robbins Curtis was born in Watertown, Mass., Nov. 4, 1809. At the age of 20 he was graduated at Harvard College. He was one of the most distinguished of the famous class of "29," whose deeds have been sung by Oliver Wendell Holmes. In 1832 Mr. Curtis commenced the practice of law. By patient, diligent study he won the foremost place at the Massachusetts bar. A biographer says of him: "He was remarkable for the extent and readiness of his legal attainments, the clearness and accuracy of his statements, and the vigorous grasp of his logic." In September, 1851, Mr. Curtis was tendered a seat on the bench of the Supreme Court of the United States, to succeed Judge Levi Woodbury, deceased. This high office he held until 1851, when he resigned in order to make better provision for his family. During the past twenty-years he has practiced his profession in Boston. He had a very select and lucrative practice. On the death of Chief Justice Chase, Judge Curtis' name was prominent in connection with the Chief Justiceship, and in the protracted Senatorial struggle in Massachusetts, last May, he was the candidate of the Democratic party. He would have been a worthy successor to Charles Sumner. George Ticknor Curtis, the well known author, is a younger brother of the deceased jurist. A great and good man has gone.

Mrs. Lillie Devereux Blake, a distinguished orator in the woman suffrage cause, made a speech in New York recently, on the political situation, in which she alluded to the Democratic party as "wedded to a corpse," and to the Liberal Republican party as "a tender, young coquette besieged by two suitors—promising one thing one day and another the next."

SUPREME COURT.

Court met pursuant to adjournment.

Present—B. F. Bonham, Chief Justice; P. P. Prim and E. D. Shattuck, Associate Justices.

D. A. Richards, appellant vs C. O. Fanning, respondent; motion heretofore filed to dismiss the appeal allowed and costs adjudged against the appellant.

D. A. Richards, appellant vs C. O. Fanning, respondent; judgment modified and costs all adjudged one-half to either party.

J. N. Dolph, plaintiff and respondent vs Harlow Barney, defendant and appellant; postponed until the next term of this Court.

Court adjourned until Thursday at 11 o'clock A. M.

A SACRAMENTO SENSATION.—Two gentlemen residing in Sacramento, Cal., were startled a few nights ago by loud screams proceeding from a room occupied by a lady member of the family. Inquiry elicited the information that "there was a centipede on her bed." The gas was at the time turned down quite low, but the men could see the insect on the bed and, doubling a towel several times, one of them cast it over the centipede, and clutched it tightly to prevent its escape. One of the gentleman was a sort of amateur scientist, and desired ardently to preserve the centipede as a specimen. Accordingly the captured insect was carried in the towel to a drug-store. The druggists poured chloroform on the towel to stupify the creature and to prevent the possibility of its escape, and one of the clerks stood by with an uplifted club, to strike it should it attempt to get off. The towel was opened, and the expectant lookers-on were astonished to find that all the fuss had been made over a little strip of calico.

Tom bought a gallon of gin to take home, and by way of a label, wrote his name upon a card, which happened to be the seven of clubs, and tied it to the handle. A friend coming along and observing the jug, quietly remarked, "That's an awful careless way to leave that liquor!" "Why?" said Tom. "Because somebody might come along with the eight of clubs and take it."

James Nugent, alias "Rocky Mountain Jim," died at Fort Collins, Larimer county, a week ago.

THURSTON COUNTY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

OLYMPIA, W. T., Sept. 23, 1874.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The Republican County Convention met here to-day at 1 P. M., for the purpose of electing delegates and nominating county officers.

Ira Ward, Esq., was called to the chair and Hon. Elwood Evans was elected Secretary.

A committee having been appointed on Credentials, retired, and after a brief absence, presented a report which was adopted.

The call for the Convention having been read, it was moved and carried that four delegates be elected to attend the Territorial Convention, and the following gentlemen were declared elected to that position: Gov. E. P. Ferry, ex-Gov. E. S. Salomon, Major James R. Hayden and J. Rhoades, Esq.

A motion that the nomination of officers be postponed till Oct. 19, was lost.

The nomination of three Representatives to the Legislature, being next in order, resulted as follows: Elwood Evans, Olympia precinct, and J. Wood, Union precinct, on first ballot; T. F. Brewer, Mound Prairie, on second ballot.

The following nominations were then made for county officers: Sheriff, William Billings; Auditor, A. A. Phillips; Treasurer, J. H. Munson; Commissioners, J. Kendall, J. T. Richards and Otto Ranke; Probate Judge, A. R. Elder; School Superintendent, D. R. Bigelow; Coroner, I. V. Mossman; Surveyor, L. G. Abbott; Justices of the Peace, A. R. Elder and F. A. Hoffman; Constable, I. V. Mossman.

Convention then adjourned.

SHIP IN TROUBLE.—We are in a letter written from Santiago, dated July 31st. The writer s Portland. Last spring he the ship Fortuna, which sailed bound for Valparaiso. While on the outward pa the ship encountered a heavy storm on the 19th of June, which continued for three days with During the continuance of the storm all on board entertained little hopes of reaching land again. To render matters more perilous, one of the rudder chains gave from the great strain to which it was subjected, and the vessel was allowed to drift at the mercy of the waves. At length the rudder was repaired, and the ship put about and beat against the storm. Soon after the wind arose, the ship sprung a leak, and it was necessary to keep the pumps running night and day to prevent her from sinking. Even when on board was pumped into the sea, and the ship compelled to take turns at the pumps, we were well nigh exhausted. At the ship carpenter, at my request, constructed a windmill which proved a success, and worked the pumps, and thus saved him from the sea. The ship leaked so badly that she could show progress, not sailing more than 9 knots per hour, even when driven by a heavy gale. However, on the third day the wind abated and the storm was at an end, the leak was repaired, and the ship kept on her course. Several other encountered, but none so severe as the one described. Sixty-five days out from Port Orford, the Fortuna reached Valparaiso in a badly, but rather a damaged condition.

JURY LIST.—The following named were yesterday by the County Court, as jurors, to serve at the October Term of said Court, which will open on the 13th inst.: H. C. Leonard, Portland, merchant; H. SHIP IN TROUBLE.—We are in receipt of a letter written from Santiago South America dated July 9th. The writer formerly resided in Portland. Last spring he took passage on the ship [illegible] which sailed from Port Gamble bound for Valparaiso. The writer says while on the outward passage the ship encountered a heavy storm on the 19th of June which continued for three days with great severity. During the continuance of the storm all on board entertained little hopes of ever reaching land again. To render our situation more perilous, one of the rudder tillers broke from the great strain to which it was subjected, and the vessel was allowed to drift about at the mercy of the waves. At length the tiller was repaired, and the ship put about and beat against the storm. Soon after the storm arose, the ship sprung a leak, and it was necessary to keep the pumps running night and day to prevent her from sinking. Every man on board was pressed into service and were compelled to take turns at the pumps, until all were well nigh exhausted. At length the ship carpenter at my suggestion rigged up a windmill which proved successful and worked the pumps and thus saved human labor. The ship leaked so badly that she made slow progress—not sailing more than 3 or 4 knots per hour, even when driven by a heavy gale. However on the third day the wind ceased and the storm was at an end when the leak was repaired and the vessel kept on her course. Several other heavy gales were encountered, but none so severe as the first. Sixty five days out from Port Gamble the Pet [illegible] reached Valparaiso in safety. But in rather a damaged condition.

JURY LIST.—The following names were drawn yesterday by the County Commissioners as jurors to serve at the October term of Circuit Court, which will meet on the 12th inst. H C Leonard, speculator D W Ramsdale merchant H Holtgrieve farmer, R P Wright speculator J A Tyler merchant A T Smith, lumber dealer George H Jones, carpenter; C W Snook, mechanic Geo. W Long farmer, Wm Gedamke, farmer, L Quackenbush, cashier; J A Strowbridge, leather dealer D F Buxton farmer George Woodard, real estate agent J B Kellogg, hotel keeper John Jackson farmer J D Tilley salesman A H Johnson, cattle dealer J P O Lownsdale, speculator John B Windle farmer Richard Williams capitalist Louis Love speculator J R Brigham farmer J L Atkinson real estate dealer Theo. Wygant, accountant John Sheffield, farmer L St John, contractor D W Wilcox merchant Wm Dalton grocer Joseph Teal, speculator John M Drake clerk.

PASSENGERS.—This morning at 4 o'clock the steamer Ajax will sail for San Francisco. She carries the following passengers hence: Miss Goode and sister M Gundlach A Tread well, James T Goode Wm Stewart, L Smith, Frank Clark, Lieut Chas Hay N Shamevald R J O Skinner U S A, A Wolf, L A Liberty, James Stevenson and wife, Mrs D Bennett and child James G Hughes and wife, James Evans J H Hughes, Miss Carrie Swain Miss Agnes R Townsdale Miss Jennie Fox Miss Estella Bush G W Gray A Bush C H Colby, J W Walton Henry M Denny R N Calton Miss Hanting and two children L F Thompson Mrs Abbott, John Knapp, wife and son, Mrs O Stewart, Wells Fargo & Co's Mess't, and 20 in the steerage.

COURSE OF LECTURES.—Nothing will do more to advance the good character and build up the Museum than a good course of lectures. We learn that several of our most [illegible] have, in response to invitations, prepared one and two lectures each. It is hard to make these lectures pop[illegible] for we know reputation of the speakers, the [illegible] of minds engaged and subjects [illegible] with the fact that the means [illegible] from these lectures will be used in [illegible]ying and encasing the collection for the Museum all have their influence [illegible] other large audiences.

NEW DWELLING SALE.—There arrived per Ajax, from the Hall's Safe and Lock [illegible] a present dwelling house safe for the [illegible] W—— one of our prominent citizens. The workmanship up of the safe is excellent. It has double folding doors with Hall's Combination Lock. It is 40 inches high, 35 wide, and 22 deep and [illegible] nearly twenty hundred pounds, and [illegible]400. Inside it is handsomely supplied with drawers, lined with velvet, of [illegible] sizes for jewelry and silverware, also a heavy steel box for valuable papers. It can be seen for a few days at the store of H C [illegible] dge, on First street.

GOING TO VICTORIA.—On Wednesday morning Rev. R. G. Bradford, accompanied by his family, left for Victoria. He had intended originally to go down to Astoria and take the steamer Ajax on her outward passage but subsequently changed his determination and concluded to make a tour to British Columbia before his departure from this coast. Mr Bradford will remain a few days at Victoria and embarking on the Rum Taber sail for San Francisco from which port he will be speeding with the velocity of steam toward the shores of New Jersey.

NEW BOAT.—Mr Steffan, who is the contractor for building a new boat for the Astoria Boom Co., by has in his employ a large number of carpenters, who began on Wednesday morning to raise the timbers for the keel at a point just below the west side depot. The work is to be crowded forward to completion and the new barge will be ready for launching by the latter part of next month. Meantime the second [illegible] boats by the O S N Co is rapidly approximating the finishing strokes. It will be launched some time next week.

ST MICHAEL'S DAY.—We understand that the feast of St. Michael, the 29th inst., will be celebrated at St. Michael's College in this city, in an appropriate manner. The new wing will be completed and thrown open to the public on that occasion, when the pupils of the College will deliver addresses, recitations and poetical selections, appropriate to the occasion.

DIVINE SERVICE.—There will be divine service held on Sunday at the Church north east corner of Taylor and Fifth streets, by the Rev Dr John Gautenbein. Morning service will be held at 10:30 o'clock; children's service at 2 o'clock P M. Services will be conducted in the German language. Residence of Mr Gautenbein northeast corner of Fifth and C streets.

BUILDING.—Mr G W Johnson of First street is making preparations to immediately commence the erection of a two story building 22 feet adjoining the one now occupied by him on the corner of L and Water streets. When finished, the two buildings will be used as a [illegible].

THE WOMAN'S TEMPERANCE MEETING will be held this (Friday) evening at the Taylor street M E church. The meeting will be conducted by the Prayer League. A full attendance of the members is requested. By order of the President.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater-goers should not be unmindful of the fact that Geo. Jenio Theater will be opened this evening for a brief season. Quite a sensational drama, full of vivacity and replete with startling situations will be presented for the first time in the history of Portland. Miss Amy Stone, who is regarded as a brilliant artiste in her line assumes the character of Marguerite, supported by the full dramatic company. A crowded house will doubtless greet her debut on the Portland stage.

Entertainment Weather last evening prevented many from attending the circus who would otherwise have been present but the large pavilion was well filled, nevertheless. The performance of the evening passed off in a manner highly satisfactory to all. New attractions are promised this evening. Matinee to-morrow afternoon and the last performance in the evening.

TARGET SHOOTING.

Fall in line was the order given by Lieut Sutherland and at 1:30 P M yesterday the Washington Guard moved off from their Armory westward bound to Voos Villa followed by invited guests in vehicles. The weather was just about the right temperature, and marching proved to be a pleasant [illegible]. In about thirty minutes the party arrived at the [illegible] resort. A journeying to an adjoining [illegible] they came to a rest after which the targets were placed in proper position. Judges T H Parrott and Captain Wiley and Scorers Frank Beardsley took up a position at a safe distance and the practice began. The target was [illegible] somewhat the intervening space being obstructed by an occasional stump and a host of porkers who persisted in getting in the way, not interfering however with any but poor marksmen. The signal for the commencement was given by Lieut Sutherland and the members of the Company took up their positions in order each being entitled to three shots. The result of the shooting we annex.

111 Pts

First—Handsomely engraved silver Maltese Cross Medal, A Bushwater presented by Frank Beardsley.

Second—A Gold and Silver Medal representing knapsack and muskets Wm Showers presented by Captain Cook.

Third—Breastpin R H Austin presented by a friend.

Fourth—Gold Ring Jas I Schriebel presented by T J Jeffry.

Fifth—A Bound Volume W F Ferry presented by J A Gill.

Sixth—Sleeve Buttons, Chas Vollum presented by A S King.

Seventh—Album F B Gardner presented by S J McCormic.

Eighth—Scarf Chas Skidmore presented by Fishel & Roberts.

Ninth—Gauntlets, George Rowell presented by a friend.

Tenth—Order for a Vest, P Moloney presented by J O Neil & Co.

Eleventh—Meerschaum Pipe H A Dyer presented by H Rosenfeld & Co.

Thirteenth—Cigar Holder, W H D Joyce presented by Wasserman & Co.

Fourteenth—Cigar Holder, C H Newell, presented by Isaac Blum.

The Leather Medal fell to the lot of Sergeant John Barrow, who made up for his misfortune by winning the only prize for Officers, he acting as proxy for Captain Horatio Cook who was unable to be present, owing to a recent accident which befell him. A Gold Locket was set aside for the prize, which was duly handed to the Captain at his home. This was the first time in twelve years that Captain Cook has missed target practice of the company.

The shooting was as a general thing very irregular the numerous objects before mentioned being a great drawback.

A picture of Henry Clay, presented by Oscar Kilbourn and three cases of wine presented respectively by P Martin & Co John Schmeer and Frank Gatens the company took possession of.

At the conclusion of the practice the boys marched to Voos rural resort where after the presentation of prizes, they sat down to a bountiful supply of luncheon. Brief remarks by several present ended the festivities and shortly after six o'clock the company, headed by the drum corps, marched into the city to their armory. After stacking arms they proceeded to the residence of Captain Cooke, where they repeated the incidents of the day to their commander, Lieut Liddy was presented by the disabled Captain, with a beautiful pair of epaulettes and the recipient expressed his thanks plainly and to the point. A hop at Voos Villa in the evening was made a pleasant ending to the annual target shooting.

ON THE SIDE.

Messrs Showers and Vollum were credited with the best single shots—the former in the inner and the latter in the center.

During the greater part of the afternoon an Oregon mist prevailed.

The winner of the first prize, to his credit be it said presented his trophy to Willie Fogg, the drummer boy.

Johnson's butcher had a little target practice during the afternoon, on his own account the victims being several beeves, who came down in short order, and a speedy decapitation etc followed.

They do say Tom Parrott shot a hog and as the tribe was numerous we believe the story.

George Sears Sheriff Jeffery, Walter Moffet and Officer McCoy tried their hand at the target for a bottle of champagne. The former two came out winners.

Among the guests were Lieuts Storin and Birmingham, of the Emmets and Rifles respectively, besides several other representatives from these companies.

Mine host Voos did his duty and everybody was happy.

OUT-DOOR SPORTS.

Is it possible to arrange a match between our leading base ball clubs without a controversy? That is a question we are unable to answer. When the Arcadians entered objections to Mr Hyde of Salem as Umpire we supposed the trouble existed on that point alone. The Collegiates lost no time in offering three new names for the Arcadians to select from and the latter after gaining the consent of Mr Barker accepted that gentleman to fill the position of Umpire and so advised the Secretary of the College club adding the following:

Owing to some arrangements about the grounds we will be unable to play before one o'clock. That will give us plenty of time to play the game before the train starts. Dinner will be served at 11 o'clock. Now we as well as every one who has read anything relating to the matter, had thought that the game was to be played shortly after the arrival of the College club and that this had been settled upon weeks ago. For some reason unexplained, the Collegiates are informed as above. Now we think the change in doing the College club and those who accompany them an injustice as they have anticipated to the contrary. We see no reason in the world for the change and we hope for the credit of the home club that they will duly notify the visitors of a withdrawal of their proposition to play in the afternoon. We have given too much space to this matter, but have done so in the hope of inducing all interested to act courteously in all their dealings. Give the visitors a reception that will reflect credit upon you as all we have to say to the Arcadians and we trust they will host our sentiments. Hundreds are anticipating a grand game on Saturday morning. They should not be disappointed.

MILITARY NOTES.

Gen Jeff C Davis and wife are visiting for a few days at Yosemite, prior to rejoining his regiment.

Gen O O Howard will return in a few days from his tour of inspection in Washington and Idaho Territories.

Capt L S Babbitt son of Gen E D Babbitt of this city is at present stationed at the Arsenal St Louis.

All the evidence May[illegible] been received by the Examining Board in the case of Major [illegible] Easton the argument in behalf of the accused will be made this morning before the Court.

Col Weeks who arrived on the last steamer to relieve Col Jones, will take charge of the Quartermaster's Department at Vancouver in a few days. Col Jones will start East on the next steamer.

By orders from the Department Major Mason has been relieved from duty in this Department and is ordered to report at once at Newport Barracks Kentucky. He will leave on the next steamer.

Pursuant to telegraphic authority from Division Headquarters Capt D'Lwin V Sumner of the 1st Cavalry is assigned to temporary duty at the Headquarters of the Department of the Columbia from the 24th inst.

Lieut Col Bainbridge Major 1st Cav[illegible] Commanding Officer Columbia River Barracks, Oregon—via San Francisco to enable him to comply with written instructions at that date are contained.

PERSONAL.

Hon Joseph S Smith took his departure for the last named for Calistoga, where he contemplates taking up his future residence. On his arrival there he will be rejoined by his loving and faithful wife. We regret to state that Mr Smith is in a very feeble state of health.

Among the passengers on the outgoing steamer was Rev P Mang formerly of Vancouver, and recently on the Mission in Puget Sound. Father Mang came to the decision of Nesqually in ten days ago but during his short career he labored zealously in the work of his calling.

EXEMPT FIREMEN.

An adjourned meeting of the Exempt Firemen's Association was held at the Police Court rooms for the purpose of receiving the report of the Committee appointed at a previous meeting to draft by laws for the government of the Association.

Meeting was called to order by the President Mr A D Hallock and the minutes of the previous meeting read and approved.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

The following report of the Committee was read and adopted.

To the President and members of the Exempt Firemen's Association of Portland.

GENTLEMEN—Your Committee charged with the preparation of a code of By laws for the government of the Association beg leave to report that they have discharged that duty to the best of their ability and submit the results of their labors herewith.

It has been our aim to make the by-laws as few in number and as short and concise in substance as, in our judgment is consistent with a proper working of the Association and the promotion of its objects and to have the machinery by which those objects are to be attained as simple and free from troubles and restrictions generally useless as possible.

Respectfully submitted

D C SHUTER
S NORRIS
Wm KAPUS Committee.

On motion the report was received above was accepted and placed on file.

On motion the By laws were then taken up and read by section.

Mr Bushington moved that the By Laws as read be adopted as a whole.

Mr S M Smith moved to amend by adopting the By Laws section at a time. Motion prevailed after some discussion.

Each section was then taken up read and adopted with sundry amendments as were deemed necessary and expedient.

On motion the recommendations of the Committee on By Laws in relation to the adoption by this Association of the Rules of Order used by the Exempt Firemen's Association of Sacramento were adopted.

On motion of Mr S Norris a committee of three was appointed who were authorized to procure the printing of 500 copies of the Constitution and By Laws. The President appointed as such Committee on Printing, Messrs D C Schuyler S Norris, Wm Kapus and W O Brien.

The President appointed the following committees:

Auditing Committee—Messrs D W Burnsides, Wm Young and J J Meagher.

Fire Fighting Committee—Messrs P C Schuyler, Wm Kapus and W O Brien.

On motion the Association adjourned to Oct 8th at 7 o'clock P M.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

RELIGIOUS LOCAL PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

[From the E C Advocate.]

Bishop James has again been prostrated with sudden illness. We regret to learn that he is convalescent and that the prospect is that his valuable life will yet be spared to the Church.

Mrs P Palmer, who has done more than any other person of modern times by her pen and gifted speech to turn the attention of the Christian world to the subject of entire holiness as we regret to say lying dangerously ill at her home in New York.

We have just received the following dispatch from Bishop Merrill dated San Francisco Sept 23d. "Rev R Bentley is transferred for Taylor street M E Church, to arrive the middle of October." Bro Bentley has labored during the past year at Santa Barbara and we have no doubt is the right man for the place.

On Saturday evening last the spacious rooms of Portland Academy and Female Seminary were filled by the numerous friends of the Principal Rev F J Royal assembled to congratulate him and his excellent wife on the occasion of the twenty fifth anniversary of their wedding day. After the evening had pretty well advanced the interesting exercises took place consisting of music, prayer by Rev N Doane congratulatory address from the editor of the Advocate with presentation of a lot of solid silver articles as a token of regard from numerous friends, response of Rev F F Royal and brief but excellent addresses from ex Governor Gibbs, Hon J F Caples and Rev N Doane.

[From the Sentinel.]

We are happy to announce that the Catholic Germans of this city have formed a Musical Society called St Joseph's Singing Verein.

The Rev J J Malo who for ten years was a Missionary in this Archdiocese and whose memory is borne in grateful remembrance by his parishioners at St Paul, has been delegated to represent His Grace Archbishop Blanchet at the coming Two Hundredth Anniversary of the establishment of the See of Quebec.

From a correspondent at Baker City we receive the gratifying intelligence that not only the Catholic ladies in that city are working zealously for it but nearly all the ladies in the vicinity are preparing articles of elegance and beauty in order to add to the Fair. Miss Moss of Oregon City, Misses Sols of Canyon City and other ladies will lend the charm of voice and melody to the scene.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

More ships have arrived.

'Cigarette' this evening.

Strong indications of rain.

Big game of base ball to-morrow.

The Minstrels have flitted Salemwards.

Johnson's new slaughter house is nearly roofed in—quick work.

A large scow is beached at the foot of Oak street undergoing repairs.

Matinee to-morrow afternoon at the Theater and circus. Plenty of chances for the little folks.

The Star Adjusting Spray Nozzle, Chandler patentee of Massachusetts will be exhibited at the drill of 4 s this evening.

The auction sale yesterday at Hyman Bros conducted by Mr Kilbourn was largely attended, and almost everything offered went off readily.

A large force of carpenters are at present engaged on the frame work of St Vincent's Hospital and it is expected the building will be ready for dedication towards the close of the year.

THE COURTS.

COUNTY COURT—WOODWARD J.

THURSDAY, Sept 24 1874.

COMMISSIONERS.

The following persons were cited to appear and show cause why their assessments should not be raised: P Selling Meier Frank & Co.

The following persons appeared to answer the summons: I W Wallace P Selling A Meier.

The assessments of the following persons were raised: P Selling in the sum of $1,500; A Meier in the sum of $[illegible]50.

Ordered that the Clerk be authorized to make three copies of the assessment roll.

Ordered that the order heretofore made appointing Mc Theo[illegible] Wygant James Steel and J Quackenbush to investigate and report upon the accounts of the county be and the same is hereby amended by directing the said persons to commence the investigations as far back as the commencement of the fiscal year 1868 bringing forward trial balances for each year as provided in said order.

THE WOMEN IN COUNCIL.

The Oregon State Woman Suffrage Association, in session at Salem on last Wednesday adopted the following resolutions:

Whereas Woman is as much a part and parcel of the body politic as man and as much an object of human government as man and whereas taxation without representation is anti republican and antagonistic in spirit and principle to the Declaration of Independence and contrary to the spirit and genius of our institutions and Government therefore be it

Resolved By the State's Woman's Suffrage Association now assembled that said Association claim of the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon now in session such appropriate legislation at this session as shall put woman upon an equal footing with man in the enjoyment of the elective franchise or right of suffrage.

W Carey Johnson read a bill that had been prepared for the Legislature to act upon.

On motion it was given to Hon C A Reed with request to present it at the proper time.

The petitions that had been circulated throughout the State were handed in and contained between fourteen and fifteen hundred signatures. They were also given into Mr Reed's possession to present to the Legislature.

"Not very Well"

A feeling of vague [illegible]ility discomfort which does not amount to positive illness and yet is incompatible with health, is often aptly described by the phrase "Not very well." This feeling usually arises from a deficiency of the nervous power which is required to keep the vital machinery in vigorous and healthful operation. Nervous weakness has to frequently furnished [illegible] in the prelude of more serious malady to admit of any doubt in the matter. Invigivity of the body functions as surely begets their derangement as cause precedes effect. It is therefore decidedly essential for the preservation of health perhaps of life itself that this warning should be promptly heeded. The case does not admit of delay. Revitalize the system at once and effectually with Hostetter's Bitters—that process in vigorant which by infusing new health and strength into the system protects it against disease more surely than overwhelming cold was preceded by armor of proof against the ice.

CITY.

SHIP IN TROUBLE.—We are in receipt of a letter written from Santiago South America, dated July 31st. The writer formerly resided in Portland. Last spring he took passage on the ship Fearless, which sailed from Port Gamble bound for Valparaiso. The writer says: "While on the outward passage the ship encountered a heavy storm on the 19th of June, which continued for three days with great severity. During the continuance of the storm all on board entertained little hopes of ever reaching land again. To render our situation more perilous, one of the rudder tillers broke from the great strain to which it was subjected, and the vessel was allowed to drift at the mercy of the waves. At length the tiller was repaired and the ship put about and fled against the storm. Soon after the storm arose the ship sprung a leak, and it was necessary to keep the pumps running night and day to prevent her from sinking. Every man on board was pressed into service and were compelled to take turns at the pumps until all were well nigh exhausted. At length the ship carpenter at my suggestion rigged up a windmill which proved successful, and several tide pumps and thus saved human labor. The ship leaked so badly that she made slow progress—not sailing more than 5 or 6 knots per hour even when driven by a heavy gale. However on the third day the gale abated and the storm was at an end, when the leak was repaired and the vessel kept on her course. Several other heavy gales were encountered but none so severe as the first. Sixty five days out from Port Gamble, the Fearless reached Valparaiso in safety but in rather a damaged condition.

JURY LIST.—The following names were drawn yesterday by the County Commissioners as jurors, to serve at the October term of Circuit Court which will meet on the 12th inst.: H C Leonard, speculator; D W Burnsides, merchant; H Holtgrieve, farmer; E P Wright, speculator; J A Tyler, merchant; A F Smith, lumber dealer; George H Jones, carpenter; C W Snook, mechanic; Geo. M Luhr, farmer; Wm Gedanke, farmer; Geo. Quackenbush, cashier; J A Strowbridge, dealer; D F Buxton, farmer; George Woodard, real estate agent; J B Kellogg, hotel keeper; John Eckson, farmer; J D Ring, salesman; A H Johnson, cattle dealer; J P O Lownsdale, speculator; John E Windle, farmer; Richard Williams, capitalist; Louis Love, speculator; J R Brigham, farmer; J L Atkinson, real estate dealer; Elmer Wygant, accountant; John Shetfield, dealer; L St John, contractor; D W Wilson, merchant; Wm Dalton, grocer; Joseph Teal, speculator; John M Drake, clerk.

PASSENGERS.—This morning at 4 o'clock, the steamer Ajax will sail for San Francisco. She carries the following passengers hence: Miss Goode and sister M Gundlach, A Treadwell, James T Goode, Wm Stewart, L Smith, Frank Clark, Lieut Chas Hay, N Shanewald, H O Skinner U S A, A Wolf L A Flaherty, James Stevenson and wife, Mrs. Bennett and child, James G Hughes and wife, James Evans, J H Hughes, Miss Carrie Swan, Miss Agnes R Lowndale, Miss Jen Gray, Miss Estella Bush, G W Gray, A Bush, O J Hazeltine, wife and two children, H Colby, H H Colby, J W Walton, M Denny, N N Calton, Miss Hunting and two children, L F Thompson, Mrs Abbott, John Knapp, wife and son, Mrs. O Stewart, Wells, Fargo & Co's Messenger, and 20 in the steerage.

COURSE OF LECTURES.—Nothing will do more to spread the good character and build up the Museum than a good course of lectures. We learn that several of our most prominent citizens have, in response to invitations, consented one and two lectures each. It is hard to make these lectures popular. We all know reputation of the speaker, the state of minds engaged and subjects treated, with the fact that the means derived from these lectures will be used in improving and encasing the collection in the Museum, all have their influence to draw together large audiences.

THE DWELLING SAFE.—There arrived per steamer Ajax, from the Hall's Safe and Lock Co., a magnificent dwelling house safe for the use and benefit of one of our prominent citizens. The workmanship of the safe is excellent. It has double folding doors with Hall's Combination Lock. It is 40 inches high, 38 wide and 20 deep, and weighs nearly twenty hundred pounds, and cost $1400. Inside it is handsomely finished with drawers, lined with velvet of different sizes for jewelry and silverware, also a heavy steel box for valuable papers. It can be seen for a few days at the store of H C Merrill, on First street.

GONE TO VICTORIA.—On Wednesday morning Rev. A. G. Bickford, accompanied by his wife, left for Victoria. He had intended, originally to go down to Astoria and take the steamer Ajax on her outward passage but subsequently, by the kindness of Capt. Ainsworth, changed his determination and concluded to take a tour to British Columbia before his departure from this coast. Mr Bickford will remain a few days at Victoria and Nanaimo, on the Wm Taber sail for San Francisco. Soon after he will be speeding with the velocity of steam toward the shores of New Jersey.

NEW RACER.—Mr Stetson, who is the contractor for building a new boat for the Astoria & Barge Company, has in his employ a large number of carpenters, who began on Wednesday morning to raise the timbers for the keel at a point just below the west side depot. The work is to be crowded forward to completion and the new barge will be ready for launching by the latter part of next month. Meantime the boats of the O S N Co is rapidly approximating the finishing strokes and will be launched some time next week.

ST MICHAEL'S DAY.—We understand that the feast of St. Michael, the 29th inst., will be celebrated at St. Michael's College in this city, in an appropriate manner. The new wing will be completed and thrown open to the public on that occasion when the pupils of the College will deliver addresses, recitations and poetical selections, appropriate to the occasion.

DIVINE SERVICE.—There will be divine service held on Sunday at the Church north east corner of Taylor and Fifth streets, by the Rev Dr John Gantenbein. Morning service will be held at 10-30 o'clock, children's service at 2 o'clock P M. Services will be conducted in the German language. Residence of Mr Gantenbein northeast corner of Fifth and Couch streets.

WEATHER REPORT.—From the records of the U S Signal Station of Observation, Portland Oregon September 24, 1874:

PERSONAL.—Mr G W Johnson of Lafayette, Portland, is making preparations to immediately commence the erection of a two story brick building, 50 feet adjoining the one now occupied by him on the corner of First and Water streets. When finished the two buildings will be used as a hotel.

THE WOMAN'S TEMPERANCE MEETING will be held this (Friday) evening at the Taylor street M E Church. The meeting will be conducted by the Prayer League. A full attendance of the members is requested. By order of the President.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater goers should not be unmindful of the fact that Geo. Pauncefote's Theater will be opened this evening, for a brief season. Quite a sensational drama, full of vivacity and replete with startling situations will be presented for the first time in the history of Portland. Miss Jenny Stone, who is regarded as a brilliant artiste in her line, assumes the character of Lucette, supported by the full dramatic company. A crowded house will undoubtedly greet her darling on the Portland stage.

Inclement weather last evening prevented many from attending the circus who would otherwise have been present, but the large pavilion was well filled nevertheless. The performance of the evening passed off in a manner highly satisfactory to all. New attractions are announced this evening. Matinee to-morrow afternoon, and the last performance in the evening.

TARGET SHOOTING

Fall in line was the order given by Lieut. Sutherland and at 1 30 P M yesterday the Washington Guard moved off from their Armory, eastward bound to Voos Villa, followed by invited guests in vehicles. The weather was just about the right temperature, and marching proved to be pleasant. In about thirty minutes the party arrived at the popular resort. A bugle sounded from an adjoining space they came to a rest, after which the target was placed in proper position. Judges T H Parrott and Captain Wiley and Scorer Frank Beardsley took up a position at a safe distance, and the practice began. The target was elevated somewhat, the intervening space being obstructed by an occasional stump and a lot of porkers who persisted in getting in the way, not interfering however with any but the poorest marksmen. The signal for the commencement was given by Lieut Sutherland and the members of the Company took up their positions in order, each being entitled to three shots. The result of the shooting we annex:

PRIZES.

First—Handsomely engraved silver Maltese Cross Medal. A Buchwalter presented by Frank Beardsley.

Second—A Gold and Silver Medal representing knapsack and muskets. Wm Showers, presented by Captain Cook.

Third—Breastpin. R. H Austin, presented by a friend.

Fourth—Gold Ring. Jas. L Schnefful presented by I J Jeffery.

Fifth—A Bound Volume of W T Ferry presented by J K Gill.

Sixth—Sleeve Buttons. Chas Volum presented by A N King.

Seventh—Album. L B Gardner presented by S J McCormick.

Eighth—Scarf. Chas Skidmore presented by Fishel & Roberts.

Ninth—Gauntlets. George Newell presented by a friend.

Tenth—Order for a Vest. P Moloney presented by J O Neil & Co.

Eleventh—Meerschaum Pipe and Tobacco. C A Francis presented by T Dittenhoefer.

Twelfth—Meerschaum Pipe. H A Dyer presented by H. Rosenfeld & Co.

Thirteenth—Cigar Holder. W H D Joyce presented by Wasserman & Co.

Fourteenth—Cigar Holder. C H Newell presented by Isaac Bluh.

The Leather Medal fell to the lot of Sergeant John Barrow who made up for his misfortune by winning the only prize for officers, he acting as proxy for Captain Hamilton Cook, who was unable to be present owing to a recent accident which befell him. A Gold Locket was set aside for the prize which was duly handed to the Captain at his home. This was the first time in twelve years that Captain Cook has missed target practice of the Company.

The shooting was as a general thing very irregular the numerous objects being mentioned being a great drawback.

A picture of Henry Clay presented by Oscar Kilbourn and three cases of wine presented respectively by T. Martin & Co., John Schmeer and Frank Gatens, the company took possession of.

At the conclusion of the practice the boys marched to Voos rural resort where after the presentation of prizes, they sat down to a bountiful supply of luncheon. Brief remarks by several present ended the festivities and shortly after six o'clock the company headed by the drum corps, marched into the city to their armory. After stacking arms they proceeded to the residence of Captain Cooke, where they received the hearty congratulations of the day by their commander. Lieut Laddy was presented by the disabled Captain, with a beautiful pair of epaulettes, and the recipient expressed his thanks plainly and to the point. A hop at Voos Villa in the evening was made a pleasant ending to the annual target shooting.

ON THE SIDE.

Messrs Showers and Vollum were credited with the best single shots—the former a four and the latter in the center.

During the greater part of the afternoon an Oregon mist prevailed.

The winner of the first prize to his credit he said presented his trophy to Willie Long, the drummer boy.

Johnson a butcher had a little target practice during the afternoon on his own account; the victims being several beeves, who came down in short order, and a speedy decapitation ensued followed.

They do say Tom Parrott shot a hog, and as the tribe was numerous we believe the story.

George Sears, Sheriff Jeffry, Walter Moffit and Officer McCoy tried their hand at the target for a bottle of champagne. The former two came out winners.

Among the guests were Lieuts Storrn and Birmingham of the Emmets and Rifles respectively besides several other representatives from these companies.

Mine host Voos did his duty, and every body was happy.

OUT-DOOR SPORTS.

Is it possible to arrange a match between our leading base ball clubs without a controversy? That is a question we are unable to answer. When the Arcadians entered objections to Mr Hyde of Salem as Umpire we supposed the trouble existed on that point alone. The Collegiates lost no time in offering three new names for the Arcadians to select from and the latter after gaining the consent of Mr Barker, accepted that gentleman to fill the position of Umpire and so advised the Secretary of the College club adding the following:

Owing to some arrangements about the grounds we will be unable to play before one o'clock. That will give us plenty of time to play the game before the train starts. Dinner will be served at 11 o'clock. Now we as well as every one who has read anything relating to the matter, had thought that the game was to be played shortly after the arrival of the College club and that this had been settled upon weeks ago. For some reason unexplained, the Collegiates are informed as above. Now we thank the changes in doing the College club and those who accompany them at all justice as they have anticipated to the contrary. We see no reason in the world for the change and we hope for the credit of the home club that they will duly notify the visitors of a withdrawal of their proposition to play in the afternoon. We have given too much space to them after but have done so in the hope of inducing all interested to act courteously in all their dealings. Give the visit is a reception that will reflect credit upon us all we have to say to the Arcadians and we trust they will heed our suggestions. Hundreds are anticipating a grand game on Saturday morning. They should not be disappointed.

MILITARY NOTES.

Gen Jeff C Davis and wife are rusticating for a few days at Yosemite, prior to rejoining his regiment.

Gen O O Howard will return in a few days from his tour of inspection in Wa hington and Idaho Territories.

Capt L S Babbitt son of Gen I B Babbitt of this city is at present stationed at the Arsenal, St Louis.

All the evidence having been received by the Examining Board in the case of Major Eggleston the argument in behalf of the accused will be made this morning before the Court.

Col Weeks who arrived on the last steamer to relieve Col Jones, will take charge of the Quartermaster's Department at Vancouver in a few days. Col Jones will start East on the next steamer.

By order from the Department Major Mason has been relieved from duty in this Department and is ordered to report at once at Newport, Kentucky. He will leave on the next steamer.

Pursuant to telegraphic authority from Division Headquarters Capt Edwin V Sumner of the 1st Cavalry is assigned to temporary duty at the Headquarters of the Department of the Columbia from the 5th inst.

Preparations in the rooms of the 15th Infantry Department Commander Major Hunt are in progress for the 1st Cavalry to return to his station—Camp Harney, Oregon—viz: Such transportation as may be required will be furnished.

PERSONAL.

Hon Joseph S Smith took his departure on the last train for Salt Lake, where he contemplates taking up his future residence. On his arrival there he will be rejoined by his loving and faithful wife. We regret to state that Mr Smith is in a very feeble state of health.

Among the passengers on the outgoing steamer was Rev P Mans, formerly of Vancouver, and recently on the Mission at Lapwai. Father Mans has labored for Northern Indians for twelve years, and during his present short career he has labored zealously in the work of his calling.

EXEMPT FIREMEN

An adjourned meeting of the Exempt Firemen's Association was held at the Police Court rooms for the purpose of receiving the report of the Committee appointed at a previous meeting to draft by laws for the government of the Association.

Meeting was called to order by the President. Mr A B Hallock read the minutes of the previous meeting, read and approved.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

The following report of the Committee was read and adopted:

To the President and Members of the Exempt Firemen's Association of Portland, GENTLEMEN—Your Committee charged with the preparation of a code of By Laws for the government of the Association beg leave to report that they have discharged that duty to the best of their ability and submit the results of their labors herewith.

It has been our aim to make the by laws as few in number and as short and concise in substance as in our judgment is consistent with a proper working of the Association and the promotion of its object, and to have the machinery by which those objects are to be attained as simple and free from troublesome restrictions generally useless as possible.

Respectfully submitted.

J F C SCHUFELT
S NORRIS
WM KAPUS Committee.

On motion report as read above was accepted and placed on file.

On motion the By Laws were then taken up and read by section.

Mr Failing moved that the By Laws as read be adopted as a whole.

Mr S M Smith moved to amend by adopting the By Laws one section at a time. Motion prevailed after some discussion.

Each section was then taken up read and adopted with sundry amendments as were deemed necessary and expedient.

On motion the recommendations of the Committee on By Laws in relation to the adoption by this Association of the Rules of Order used by the Exempt Firemen's Association of Sacramento were adopted.

On motion of Mr S Norris a committee of three was appointed who were authorized to procure the printing of 500 copies of the Constitution and By Laws. The President appointed as such committee on Printing, Messrs P C Schuyler S Norris Wm Kapus.

The President appointed the following committees:

Auditing Committee—Messrs D W Burnsides Wm Young and J J Meagher.

Investigating Committee—Messrs P C Schuyler, Wm Kapus and W O Pruch.

On motion the Association adjourned to Oct 5th, at 7 o'clock P M.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

RELIGIOUS LOCAL, PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

(From the I C Advocate.)

Bishop James has again been prostrated with sudden illness. We are glad to learn that he is convalescent and that the prospect is that his valuable life will yet be spared to the Church.

Mrs P Palmer, who has done more than any other person of modern times by her pen and gifted speech to turn the attention of the Christian world to the subject of entire holiness is we regret to say, living dangerously ill at her home in New York.

We have just received the following dispatch from Bishop Merrill, dated San Francisco Sept 23d: Rev R Bentley is transferred for Taylor street M E Church to arrive the middle of October. Bro Bentley has labored during the past year at Santa Barbara and we have no doubt is the right man for the place.

On Saturday evening last the spacious rooms of Portland Academy and Female Seminary were filled by the numerous friends of the Principal Rev T I Royal assembled to congratulate him and his excellent wife on the occasion of the twenty fifth anniversary of their wedding day. After the evening had pretty well advanced the more formal exercises took place consisting of music prayer by Rev N Doane congratulatory address from the editor of the Advocate with presentation of a lot of solid silver articles as a token of regard from numerous friends response of Rev T I Royal and brief but excellent addresses from ex Governor Gibbs Hon J F Caples and Rev N Doane.

(From the Sentinel.)

We are happy to announce that the Catholic Germans of this city have formed a Musical Society called St Joseph's Singing Verein.

The Rev J I Malo who for ten years was a Missionary in this Archdiocese, and whose memory is borne in grateful remembrance by his parishioners at St Paul, has been delegated to represent His Grace Archbishop Blanchet at the coming Two Hundredth Anniversary of the establishment of the See of Quebec.

From a correspondent at Baker City we receive the gratifying intelligence that not only the Catholic ladies in that city are working zealously for it but nearly all the ladies in the vicinity are preparing articles of elegance and beauty in order to aid to the Fair. Miss Moss of Oregon City, Misses Sim of Canyon City and other ladies will lend the charm of voice and melody to the scene.

LOCAL BRILLIANTIES.

More ships have arrived.

Cigarette this evening.

Strong indications of rain.

Big game of base ball to-morrow.

The Minerels have flitted Salemward.

Johnson's new slaughter house is nearly roofed in—quick work.

A large scow is beached at the foot of Oak street undergoing repairs.

Matinee to-morrow afternoon at the Theater and circus. Plenty of chances for the little folks.

The Star Adjusting Spray Nozzle Chandler patentee of Massachusetts will be exhibited at the drill of 4 s this evening.

The auction sale yesterday at Hyman Bros conducted by Mr Kilbourn was largely attended and almost everything offered went off readily.

A large force of carpenters are at present engaged on the frame work of St Vincent's Hospital and it is expected the building will be ready for dedication towards the close of the year.

THE WOMEN IN COUNCIL

The Oregon State Woman Suffrage Association, in session at Salem on last Wednesday adopted the following resolutions:

WHEREAS Woman is as much a part and parcel of the body politic as man and as much an object of human government as man, and whereas taxation without representation is anti republican and antagonistic in spirit and principle to the Declaration of Independence and contrary to the spirit and genius of our institutions and Government therefore be it

Resolved By the State Woman's Suffrage Association now assembled that said Association claims of the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon now in session such appropriate legislation at this session as shall put woman upon an equal footing with man in the enjoyment of the elective franchise or right of suffrage.

W Carey Johnson read a bill that had been prepared for the Legislature to act upon.

On motion it was given to Hon C A Reed with request to present it at the proper time.

The petitions that had been circulated throughout the State were then read and contained between fourteen and fifteen hundred signatures. They were also given into Mr Reed's possession to present to the Legislature.

CHOLERA CRAMP, CHOLERA MORBUS, Sour Stomach and all Bowel Complaints are speedily cured by Dr Jayne's Carminative Balsam. It takes away all soreness of the abdomen, soothes the stomach and restores its natural action. As a family remedy for the diseases so prevalent among children and adults during the summer months, it is especially recommended being prompt in its operation perfectly safe and certain in its results.

"Not very Well."

A feeling of vague bodily discomfort which does not amount to positive illness and yet incompatible with health is often aptly described by the phrase. Not very well. It is for the most part usually arises from a deficiency of the nervous power which is required to keep the vital machinery in vigorous and healthful operation. Nervous weakness has too frequently turned out to be the principal if not the only serious malady to admit of any doubt in the matter. Dueness of the blood is functional or merely bygone disorder as a cause precedes effect. It is there fore always essential for the preservation of health (perhaps of life itself) that this warning should be promptly heeded. The case does not admit of delay. Revitalize the system at once and effectually with Hostetter's Bitters—that purest cheering restorant which is life giving, health and strength into the system, protects it against disease more surely than ever blood was protected by armor or fortification. TILTON'S LAST STATEMENT

I am a lone man in my chamber now
At three o'clock in the ghastly lurch
And tears roll as low in the dark as blood—
And I and the City of Churches
And my soul to it, doom of sadness
Unutterably respect leased
And my fear and eye ask full as I prove
O'er the hard that I place and last

Ah me ah me what an no I have been—
Why shouldn't I terrify take on
To think that my ponder as dust on sun
Dr. In Irving me a line of bacon
My mate, whose name was my wife to brand
Her boy and all—anything to soother
Turns out the scene of [illegible]
And not as I meant—[illegible]

Grace mercy at peace—[illegible] scaffold
Which it meant—[illegible] building your
But the latter [illegible] Medieval
And the Human again is baffled
My victim to day on the White Hill stand is
The sun on his forehead flashing
While I in the engine no wringing my hands
Go weeping and wailing and dashing

The world to the great Beyond still clings,
And remorse like love pleads
And scourges me on with scorpion sting
To fate a most rugged edge—
And this is the verdict the ruins may read
As at night he be blind as Moulton
Who scaled in Beecher in thought and deed
While cheered in Theodore Tilton.

The future is built by a single star
And heavy will be the [illegible]
With a very, the chance [illegible] of fate
Is bandestered with brimstone of Satan
But I'll wrap my self in my good black mail
And my Moulton my soul as in creature,
Will shun my sons like the [illegible] on Hell
I like the job to put upon Beecher

I often took notes, in the weeks just passed,
And it doubtless occurred to many
That the scandal a change at our feet had cast
Of turning an honest penny
We'll launch into business you understand
My friend Frank Moulton and I
And make much money by pushing our brand
Of Concentrated Lye

AFRAID THE CONFESSION

A Story of Two Boys

There is a man living on Fifth street who is a good man, endeavoring to train up his children in the way they should go, and as his flock is numerous and two of them are boys, he has anything but a sinecure in this training.

Only a day or two ago the elder of these male olive-branches, who has lived about fourteen wicked years, enticed his younger brother, who has only had ten years experience in boyish devilry, to go out on the river in a boat, a species of pastime which their father had many a time forbidden. Both the boys went this time trusting to luck to conceal their depravity from the knowledge of their pa and in due time they returned, and walked around the house. The two most innocent looking boys in Burlington. They [illegible] for a few moments and at the expiration of that time the elder was suddenly confronted by the father who requested a private interview in the usual place, and the pair adjourned up a woodshed, where, after brief but highly spirited performances, in which the boy appeared most successfully as "heavy villain" and his father took his favorite role of first old man, the curtain went down, and the boy considerably mystified sought his brother.

John, he said, who do you suppose told dad? Have you been licked?

John's face still not look more peaceful and resigned when it as in his coffin than it did as he replied:

"No, have you?"

"Well, I've come down to the cow shed and look at my back."

John declined, but said:

"Well, Bill, I'll tell you how father found us out. I was a-[illegible] acting in this way, and I saw I going to run away and come home and he shout at me, 'I'm a-going to do better after this, and he [illegible] I couldn't help it, and I [illegible] it to him and confessed.

Bill was [illegible] for the [illegible] action on the part of his younger brother. It found a tender place in the bad boy's heart and he was visibly affected by it. But he asked:

"How did he [illegible] the old man didn't lick you?

"Well," said the penitent young reformer "you see I didn't confess on myself, I only confessed on you that was the way of it.

A strange cold light glittered in Bill's eyes

"Only confessed on me" he said. "Well that's all right, but come down behind the cow-shed and look at my back."

And when they got there [illegible] —Boston Leyton Hysterics.

IS THIS "THE COMING HORSE!

A RATHER TALL STORY FROM NEW YORK

The proposed trot in Boston between celebrated stallions is the theme of general talk in New York. We have here a banker who in a quiet way has been gathering for some time the speediest horses in the country. He has a quiet stable out of the city, about an hour's ride away. Here he has a track, and without ostentation he is recording some marvelous speed. He says nothing about his stud on the street, and will not be questioned. No one can get access to his horses without a written permission from himself and that is rarely given. Among his treasures is a brother of Dexter, a gamey, speaky horse, of which marvelous things are told. This out-of-the-way stable is just now the centre of a good deal of interest. Among horsemen it has been known for a long while that a Methodist minister in Kentucky owned a colt of which marvelous things were told. The animal was as black as a raven, and bore the name of Blackwood. The value of the horse, in the estimation of the owner, may be seen by the pleasant little price that went upon him. The horsemen on the streets laughed that a plain Methodist parson in the wilds of Kentucky offered his animal for $60,000! The banker alluded to heard so much of this colt that he took a trip to Kentucky to look at him. He saw him move. He did a little him (as a marvel. His nostrils become red as fire, his eyes dilate, and he seems transformed. The captivated New Yorker offered $30,000 for the colt. The owner received the proposal with disdain. He did not even reply, offered the horse back into the stable and went into his house. Another visit was made and the horses changed owners, $40,000 it is said being the price. Now the plan is this. That when the famed horses are to trot on your course have done their best, Blackwood is to be trotted out to see what he can do. Those who have seen him move say that he is the most extraordinary animal ever seen in this part of this country.— Burleigh's Letter to the Boston Journal

LUDICROUS IDEA IN A PULPIT

A South German paper relates the following [illegible] a Bavarian town of the most pronounced Catholic orthodoxy the priest preached lately against the Old Catholics and related such horrible things about them that his pious hearers were literally horror stricken at Old Catholic iniquities. At last the preacher cried out: "The Old Catholics are so vile that they will all be cast into the pit, and if what I tell you is not true may the devil take me now on the spot." His excitement was terrible, and he so struck the cushion that the book fell from it. Not far from the pulpit there sat an American who had a negro servant with him, to whom he beckoned to take the book up to the priest, who perhaps had never seen one of these sons of Ham in his life. The negro at once obeyed, and as he mounted the lowest of the pulpit steps, the clergyman recoiled his wish that the devil might come and take him if what he had said against the Old Catholics was not true. Although the negro went softly the preacher heard his footsteps and turning round saw a black object, solemnly steadily and surely approaching him. He looked at him with [illegible] and believing that he would be the next instant collared by his Satanic Majesty he cried out, with trembling voice: "It is after all possible that there may be good people among the Old Catholics." Turning then round to see if the object had disappeared he saw it steadily approaching. The perspiration burst out on his brow and full of despair he called out: "There are even many good people among the Old Catholics." Thinking that this would suffice, he turned round but what was his horror to find that the object was close at hand. Imagining himself in the very grasp of Beelzebub, turning partly to the negro and partly to the congregation he cried out "May the devil come and take me if all the Old Catholics are not better than we are." The terrified priest fainted from fright and it was only after some time that he recovered.

'Lord' what a cow!' was the approving remark of [illegible] of Vermont, the other day, after swallowing a potent punch which had been offered to him as a glass of milk

Wheat in Liverpool by mail advices from San Francisco 10s 2d@10s 4d for average California and [illegible]

Nothing new in [illegible] we repeat [illegible] About six weeks ago, every [illegible] of the fall trade would open pretty early and start in with great activity. It is now thought probable that these [illegible] expectations will be realized, and yet we hope for a very liberal share of activity in most branches, with safe and speedy returns. The total volume of trade may show a falling off from corresponding seasons of previous years, but upon the whole we have no cause to doubt that it will prove more [illegible] proportion to [illegible] will not be recklessly given and the profits long through bad debts. The panic at the beginning of last year and the numerous failures everywhere since have taught all true business men a wholesome lesson by which they are to profit and when all the shaky firms are weeded out and confidence restored, business principles will guide dealers in their action and a new era of prosperity will dawn. The fall trade it is hoped, will [illegible] the result.

At New York during a week before last, though the number of New York buyers of American staple goods in the market had increased, business was reported light at slightly declining prices. This continues the practice adopted during the [illegible] of purchasing sparingly— sorting up as they term it—and this although unsatisfactory to the jobber who in former years was accustomed to sell a six months supply in the fall and on their such supply in the spring, yet to conservative business men who hope for a return to real and substantial rather than fictitious prosperity the caution with which traders lay in stocks of goods is regarded as a hopeful sign of the times since it is an indication that they expect to pay for what they buy and do not mean to neglect their engagements.

The coinage at the Philadelphia Mint last month amounted to $1 698,200 of which $1 601,200 was gold $96 000 silver and $1 000 base coinage. The coinage at the San Francisco Mint, during the same period amounted to $4 150 000 in gold and to $101 000 in silver trade dollars and $9 000 in subsidiary silver coin.

Wheat Quotations and Exchange

We learn that a good many persons are laboring under a mistaken idea as to what is meant by the Liverpool wheat quotations so frequently given in the newspapers. Although we have stated so before, we here give it more prominence. The quotations last noted in our San Francisco exchanges are "10s 2d@10s 6d club 10s 7d@10s 10d." These quotations are per central of 100 pounds not per bushel as some seem to interpret them, and are held to be for wheat on Change and sold by sample and not cargoes, which by latest telegrams are quoted lower and the nearer to arrive the better figure.

Again the matter of Exchange is something that enters into the calculation to be made in exporting wheat and many persons in ordinary business do not fully understand the terms commonly in use among shippers and merchants. By the term Exchange is meant remittances of money between different countries by which a sum of money of one country is received in exchange for a sum of money of another country the sums thus exchanged being equivalent in value.

According to the standard measure of the value of money in the United Kingdom and the United States a sovereign or £1 sterling is considered equal in value to $4 84 and when sums of money are exchanged at this rate between the two countries, the exchange is said to be at par. Thus the par of exchange means that sum in the current coin of one country which possesses the same intrinsic or real value as a certain sum in the currency of another country.

In calculating exchange a variable sum in the currency of one country is allowed for a certain sum in the currency of another country because exchange is very seldom at par. Thus, the United Kingdom exchanges with France at £1 sterling for a variable number of francs, and with the United States £1 sterling for a variable number of dollars but with Buenos Ayres the United Kingdom exchanges a variable number of pence for a paper dollar and with Portugal a variable number of shillings for a milreis.

When one country sends a greater amount of remittances to another country than it receives from it the exchange is above par but on the other hand when it sends a less amount of remittances to the other country than it receives from it the exchange is below par the rate of exchange being in favor of the country which sends to the other the less amount of remittances.

Home Produce Market

WHEAT—The decline noticed at the first of the week checked transactions which had been quite brisk and though receipts have for the entire week under review been free it is mostly of lots purchased prior to arrival. There is more going into vessels to-day than for a fortnight past. Several vessels are down the river and loading at the Moorbeam being temporarily suspended from some cause. We are informed no better offers can be had at present than $1 40 @ [illegible] cental.

OATS—Six [illegible] mills are employed on the new wheat crop and receipts of the producers quite liberal. Prices are weak at the reduced quotations noticed last week and cargo lots could be secured to-day at 1½ cents to 2 cents, current jobbing rates however are 94 75@5 per barrel for best extras and $4 50 for outside brands. Fine and superfine quotable at $3 50@4.

BARLEY—The new crop seems to be held back and receipts of late have only been in moderate volume. Our former quotations of 45@ [illegible] bushel in sacks are firmly sustained which is considered a fair price for this time in the season. The demand is well supplied being limited mostly to the home and Puget Sound trade.

BARLEY—The market is devoid of important transactions and the few occurring are only of small lots to supply the local breweries. Feed is [illegible] $1 00 @ 100 lbs, including sacks is paid; inferior quotable at $4 35@4 40.

FLOUR—The supplies are augmenting but prices as yet keep well up though we would be surprised at no time to note a decline. Quotable at present at $12 50 @ [illegible] ton for straights, an [illegible] $5 00@5 25 for choice and middlings.

POTATOES—Receipts are quite free but find slow sale at $10@11 ₱ ton for baled timothy and $8@10 for loose ditto.

POTATOES—The supply exceeds the demand and inferior lots almost go begging at any price. Fair varieties command 35@40c ₱ bushel sacked and best 45@50c.

ONIONS—The market shows no [illegible] and prices are weaker than at our last report at $1 50@1 60 per hundred pounds.

BACON—There has been but little received during the week under review, and the advanced rates are firmly enforced. We quote prodi [illegible] @ 16@16½ ₱ lb for sides; 14@15c for shoulders and 18@19c for hams.

LARD—The demand is fair and sales of fresh Oregon are free at 14@15c ₱ lb whether in kegs or tins though the latter is preferred.

BUTTER—For a good article the inquiry is quite brisk and quotations are slightly higher than last week. Choice roll butter 30@32c ₱ lb; good [illegible] common 20@25c.

CHEESE—The market is in fair supply and quotations remain at 10@12 cents ₱ lb.

EGGS—The receipts to supply the home trade [illegible] and prices have advanced to 30 cents ₱ dozen but the shipping demand is very light.

CHICKENS—The supply during the week has been more abundant, and prices for choice lots are now not above $4 per dozen; common $3@3 50.

DRESSED HOGS—The quotations are nominal at 6@6½ cents ₱ lb with light receipts.

MUTTON SHEEP—Fewer arrivals are noted this week, but prices remain at 2½@2 50 per head.

BEEF CATTLE—The market is still in fair supply and more but choice lots are sold as high as [illegible] Common 4½@5.

HIDES—The receipts of late for the week are [illegible] quotable at 7 cents ₱ lb for choice dry and 6½@6c for green cured 12c.

WOOL—No receipts of magnitude and but few transactions. An inferior lot sold at 14c; choice fine is quotable at 28@30c ₱ lb.

FRUIT—The market is in full supply of all seasonable kinds and prices are moderately low. Choice qualities of apples quotable at 40@60c; 2@2½ per box; pears 75@87½ ₱ box and peaches and plums 40@50c ₱ bbl. Dried fruit is unchanged.
